Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Discuss factual and abstract information about common everyday or job related topics in both work and social contexts appropriate for the interlocutor.

Ask your partner:

- From your experience, how do employers inform candidates when they get a job?
- What is the best way to find out? Why?
- What are some bad ways to find out? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about my experiences
- I can exchange opinions about my academic studies and my work in various time frames.
- I can express necessity and duty about a work-related process.
- I can talk about jobs, professions and careers.

Let's Explore!

Adam got a job at BFP! Who will he report to*?

* "To report to" means to go somewhere and tell someone that you have arrived.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Adam: Hey Kristi! Guess what! I just got a letter from BFP!

Kristi: Open it! That letter needs to be opened right away!

Adam: I've been waiting for this moment ever since I met Mr. Brody.

February 23rd

Dear Mr. Bari,

Congratulations! We are pleased to confirm that you have been selected for employment at BFP. The position we are offering is that of editorial assistant at a salary of $50,000 per year. This is a permanent position. You will report to the Director of Online Content, Mr. Peter Sanders. Your working hours will normally be from 8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., but this schedule may need some adjusting.

You will be under a period of probation for three months from the beginning of your employment.

Employee benefits include the following items as part of our group insurance plan. Some forms need to be completed before your coverage can begin.

- Long-term Disability
- Dental Care
- Short-term Health care
- A bank of 5 sick days per year
- Three weeks holiday per year

We would like you to start work on Monday February 27th. If this date is not acceptable to you, please contact me immediately as we need to be informed to make alternative arrangements. Ms. Martha Sellers, my executive assistant, will be responsible for your onboarding while you are under the probationary period.

Please sign the enclosed copy of this letter and return it as soon as possible to indicate your acceptance of this offer. We are confident that through your creativity and problem-solving skills, you will be able to make a valuable contribution to the success of our BFP. We expect you will help us to maintain high standards as we strive for innovation in journalism. We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Boris Brody

Publisher, BFP

Time Clauses

You use time clauses to be precise about when an event or action occurred or will occur.

Remember, a clause has its own subject and verb. They can come at the beginning of a sentence (separated by a comma) or at the end of a sentence.

Look at the chart as a reference for different words or phrases used in time clauses and their meanings or uses.

| Word/Phrase                     | Meaning/Use                       | Example                                                                                                                                 |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ever since                      | when things started               | I've been waiting for this moment ever since I met Mr. Brody.                                                                    |
